INDEX METHODOLOGY

The Solactive Dividend Stability Canada Preferred Share Index measures the performance of 50 preferred equity securities of companies listed on the TSX, based on market capitalization. The initial composition of the Index as well as any ongoing adjustments upon rebalancing are based on certain criteria, including:

Constituent Securities will be comprised of preferred shares traded in Canadian dollars and listed on the TSX, excluding split share corporations.

+

Constituent Securities will have a credit rating of at least P3L or higher (S&P Global Ratings Canada or DBRS group of companies).

Constituent Issuers must have a minimum size of $100 million par value, and a minimum average daily trading volume of at least $100,000 over the prior 12-month period.

³For the period ending November 30, 2020. The indicated rates of return are the historical annual compound total returns net of fees (except for figures of one year or less, which are simple total returns) including changes in per unit value and reinvestment of all dividends or distributions and do not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or optional charges or income taxes payable by any securityholder that would have reduced returns. The rates of return shown in the table are not intended to reflect future values of the ETF or returns on investment in the ETF. ETFs are not guaranteed, their values change frequently and past performance may not be repeated.

⁴Performance since inception of PREF on September 26, 2019, as at November 30, 2020.
